FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Ezra C. Evans
Federal Communication Commission
1919 M Street NW
Washington, New Jersey 20554

Dear Friend:

Thank you for contacting me.

I understand your concern about the proposed rulemaking by the Federal Communications Commission under PR Docket 92-235, and the possibility that the Commission may unreasonably restrict the use of the 72 to 76 MHz to those who use this band for remote control aircraft, or other vehicles.

I have been in contact with the FCC to relay your concerns, and those of other interested New Jerseyans. I also would encourage you to contact the FCC directly to express your views. The address of the FCC is: 1919 M Street, NW, Washington, DC 20554.

Again, thanks for your input.

Sincerely,

Frank R. Lautenberg
